edical and Surgical

INSTITUTE.

CONSULTATION, IN ALL CA-ES, FREE

CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED

IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFI-DENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAIN-TAINED.

*The above rules, established y Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, nd which have done so much secure the reputation of this nstitute, are still adhered to, ffording those in need of edical aid, the certainty of ure and the utmost confidence.
There is nothing of so great mportance to the sick as to now where to find a physi-ian whose skill and humanity ive assurance of proper and elicate treatment. The Doc-or would respectfully call the ttention of those of both sexes
ho are suffering or in trouble the invariable success that as marked the career of the nstitute in the seventeen years
f its existence.*

*It is unnecessary in this conection to enumerate all the omplaints treated at the Intitute, but the Doctor feels it is duty to call especial attenion to that terrible scourge,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
That is sapping with its in-idiousness the very life of its ictims; in the treatment and ure of which the Institute has arned so enviable a reputa-ion.*

READ! READ

am aware that by dwelling upon so unirviting a subject the decay of manly vigor through the loss of its [illegible] ignorant may [illegible] but the desire to point out to those who suffer [illegible] and decay, the true cause of their [illegible] Vitative to be forced into abeyance. [illegible] the terrible disease of Seminal Weak[illegible] that the practical specialist who devotes his [illegible] can tell, but its presence can be [illegible] noticed by noting the following [illegible] Weakness of the back and limbs; [illegible] loss of m[illegible] power; nerv[illegible] accompanied by hot head; [illegible] short breath, flushings of the face [illegible] to anxiety; confusion of the mind, loss of [illegible] colorless, slight discharges [illegible] trembling, palpitation of the heart [illegible] the variable temper, etc

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the [illegible] ated above, pause [illegible] moment in which you may [illegible] You may feel strong now, [illegible] the vice of self-abuse [illegible] you have the seeds of weakness [illegible] and their [illegible] influence will, [illegible] later, dash the fair edifice of your strength [illegible] and, leaving you a helpless, abject being [illegible] itself at once. Therein lies [illegible] while the patient is being treated for [illegible] of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or Dis[illegible] he sinks into a g[illegible] al debility that soon adds [illegible] the list of the victims of the terrible disorder, [illegible] in the best form and languishing steps, the [illegible] of the [illegible] vice! Mark the course of [illegible] complaint in the hollow cheek and dull [illegible] is one of the premonitory [illegible] it is easily [illegible] but it grows steadily [illegible] to pursue his regular [illegible] and restless nights [illegible] is the nature of the complaint to [illegible] that leave the poor victim but little hope of [illegible] In a single instant it may wither your [illegible] and blast your [illegible] aspirations. [illegible] by a natural impulse as a [illegible] This is an error of the first magnitude, [illegible] for the exigencies of the [illegible] and he finds himself in a deplor[illegible] is but the slightest hope of [illegible] result in offspring, [illegible] and degenerate. This is [illegible] to both sexes, whether married or single, and [illegible] of life.

[illegible] not delay if you feel any of the sy[illegible] or if your acts have been such as to [illegible] but by instant application secure to [illegible] hope of health and happiness. The Doctor [illegible] Mercury or other [illegible] drugs—cures, when [illegible] and full and proper [illegible]

[illegible] are assured of every confid[illegible]

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH VE-NEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the establ[illegible] Institute, the number of cases of Venereal [illegible] treated show a record unsurpassed by any [illegible] the world, and the success that has invariably [illegible] [illegible] of treatment,

Without Mercury or other Deleterious Drugs,

[illegible] the use of them to be [illegible] but [illegible] dangerous for it is [illegible] principle that those [illegible] ruin the constitution and [illegible]

The Doctor effects a cure in recent cases in a few [illegible] no difficulty in curing those of long [illegible] the patient to such treatment [illegible] upon him the slightest suspicion or [illegible] his [illegible] whether [illegible] doors or without, [illegible] need not be changed. Cures always guaranteed [illegible] required.

[illegible]ANT TO F[illegible]ALES.

[illegible] in trouble or afflicted with [illegible] medical or surgical assistance, the inquiry [illegible] Where is there a physician competent to [illegible] and whose respectable standing in society will [illegible] and him to the confidence of the community [illegible] understanding how imperatively necessary [illegible] are, feels called upon to interpose, [illegible] the attention of the afflicted to the fact that [illegible] of Obstetrics and Female D[illegible] and is fully qualified to administer in all [illegible] medically and surgically, not in a superficial [illegible] thorough a manner as years of study and [illegible] in hospitals and private families—can make, [illegible] from the hands of the unqualified unscrupulous [illegible] Therefore families can rely upon him as [illegible] All in affliction can find in him one who [illegible] sympathise with and befriend them in trouble, [illegible] enjoy the utmost confidence can be [illegible] by letter or otherwise free. Cures [illegible] in all weakness and trouble incidental to the [illegible] apartments are provided when desired, [illegible] all the advantages of unremitted attention of [illegible] and the most skillful and faithful nurses.

[illegible] PATIENTS.—Persons either male or female [illegible] in the interior, are often deterred from [illegible] because they cannot spare the time, nor [illegible] expense of a visit to the city. To such he would [illegible] plain statement of the symptoms and [illegible] upon the complaint will enable him to [illegible] so that they can be cured at home. [illegible] any false delicacy about writing, no matter what [illegible] of their complaint, as the communication will [illegible] by no one except the Doctor and either be returned or destroyed [illegible] confidence.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5.—The eighth annual fair of the St. Louis Agricultural and Mechanical Association was opened to-day under the most favorable auspices. There was a fine [illegible] large attendance. All the departments were filled to overflowing.

Political.

BOSTON, Oct. 5.—The Anti-Butler Republican mass convention to-day nominated Richard H. Dana for Congress. Their resolutions denounce Butler's financial policy, declare the Republicans of the district ought not to have sent to Congress a representative who is disqualified by bitter personal enmity toward Grant from being a participator of his administration. They also declare that Butler is not a true representative of Republican principles.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 5.—The Democrats held an immense mass meeting here to-day. [illegible] passing [illegible] Business houses and residences along the route were profusely decorated with flags, Chinese lanterns, etc. Among the speakers were Heister Clymer, Geo. H. Pendleton and Edgar Cowan. The torchlight procession to-night is a grand affair. Many buildings are brilliantly illuminated.

Democratic "Gain" Losses in Connecticut

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 5.—This city gives 779 Democratic majority, a large gain over last fall. New Haven gives 919 Democratic majority, which is a gain over last fall but not over last spring. The Times (a Democratic paper) says scattering returns from various cities show large Democratic gains in the popular vote. The Republicans have lost one town to Greenwich.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The Express has a dispatch from C. M. Ingersoll of New Haven, saying the returns now indicate a Democratic majority in that State of over 5,000 in November.

Miscellaneous.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—The corner stone of the new Illinois State House was laid at Springfield, with appropriate Masonic ceremonies. An immense crowd was in attendance. The building will probably cost [illegible]

BALTIMORE, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Lincoln sailed for Europe in the steamer Baltimore to-day.

W. F. Ritchie, former editor of the Richmond Enquirer, died in this city on Friday night of disease of the heart.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.—The Attorney General has petitioned the Supreme Court that certain persons to whom naturalization papers have been issued, without previous declaration of intention to become citizens, be made to show cause why said papers shall not be vacated. The Court holds the matter under consideration.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The Assistant Post Master General says it is not true that the transportation of the mails between the termini of the Union Central Pacific Railroad has been suspended. C. Spades of Chicago was the accepted bidder for the service, but before the contract was filed Congress repealed much of the postage laws as provided that no newspapers should be sent overland without prepayment of letter postage, thus very largely increasing the bulk of matter. Owing to the failure of Spades, Wells, Fargo & Co. are now carrying the mails under a temporary arrangement until the mail matter can be adjusted.

New York Items.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The steamer Ocean Queen from Aspinwall has arrived.

The Triennial Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church meets at Trinity Church to-morrow. Forty-two bishops and nearly one hundred and fifty delegates are expected to be present.

A story was circulated in the gold room to-day that the Government was treating for the purchase of Cuba.

It is announced that subscriptions will be received by several prominent firms for the relief of the sufferers by the earthquake in Peru and Ecuador.

The fourth National Conference of the Unitarian and other Christian churches commences to-day at Irving Hall. It will continue during the week. About eight hundred delegates will probably be present.

Terrible Calamity by Fire

OSWEGO, (N. Y.), Oct. 6.—The propeller Perseverance of the Welland railway line took fire at two o'clock this morning, fifteen miles from Port Colborne, and burned to the water's edge. Nineteen passengers were on board, fourteen of whom, including the Captain, perished in the flames which spread rapidly. All the boats but one were speedily enveloped in the flames.

The Indians of Texas.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Gen. Merritt, commanding at Fort Davis, Texas, reports recent victories over the Apache Indians by troops of his command. Their camp was destroyed, including the winter store of meats and berries, etc., and all their stock captured.

South America.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The Ocean Queen brings the following news:

Wm. Parker, Superintendent of the Panama railroad, was assassinated Sept. 27th by J. Baldwin, Civil Engineer in the employ of the railroad company. The latter was suffering from delirium tremens and shot himself. He will probably die.

Political affairs in Panama are still unsettled. Reports of a coming revolution were current, and several arrests had been made. The President had issued a proclamation stating that measures had been taken to keep the peace.

The Republic of Colombia is quiet. The reported return of Mosquera produced some alarm, but no serious effect.

The deposed President Falcon, of Venezuela, had reached Aspinwall en route to Europe.

News from the South American coast gives further accounts of the fearful ravages by inundations and earthquakes. Several vessels were damaged at Coquimbo, including the American ship Black Eagle. At Caldera sea it drove the inhabitants to the hills, wrecked sixteen or eighteen lighters and damaged several larger crafts. Twenty lighters were wrecked at Carrisal bay, besides the American brig Delphina with 20,000 kilogrammes of copper. Many vessels were damaged severely. The residents of Valparaiso have raised $40,000 for the sufferers by the earthquake, and the Chilean Congress has appropriated $50,000 for the same purpose. The government also sent large supplies of provisions, clothing and medicines to Peru.

Political affairs in Chile are unsettled. Clark, United States Consul at Valparaiso, was informally received by the President of Chile as acting Minister during Kilpatrick's absence.

The Peruvian Government is doing everything possible to relieve the sufferers by the earthquake and inundation both in Peru and Ecuador. The victims in Peru will probably reach 2,000. A change has taken place in the sea coast of Peru in consequence of the earthquake, the depth of water off the headland of Sama near Arica having been decreased to six or seven fathoms. The loss of life in Ecuador will not be less than forty thousand.

FROM THE NORTH

VICTORIA, Oct. 7.—The bark Glimpse arrived off Port Discovery harbor last Friday with small-pox on board. One passenger died on the passage. The captain also died after the ship arrived in port. It is reported that a Mr. [illegible] four of the crew were down with the disease. The bark will be towed around and put in quarantine at the head of Port Townsend bay. The revenue cutter Jo Lane, has been stationed off Port Hudson with instructions to bring to all inward bound vessels and to forbid them approaching farther, until examined by a health officer.

The steamer Emma, from Deep Bay, bringing all the party engaged in whaling off the Saanich banks, arrived at Victoria yesterday. The expedition had been thirty-one days out, during which time only two and a half days were clear enough for whaling. They lost three whales by the lines parting and harpoons breaking.

The ship Shooting Star is loading with coal at Nanaimo for San Francisco.

Owing to the existence and probable increase of small-pox in this city, the authorities have taken active measures to prevent the spreading of the disease.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

The town of Walla Walla has two schools of its own with an average daily attendance of sixty-one scholars.

James C. Brown, late Deputy Marshal of this Territory, sailed from Port Discovery on the ship Revere for San Francisco on the 18th ult.

The largest sales of land ever made at the Olympia Land Office in a single month were effected in September. The sales amount to about 20,000 acres. The Puget Mill Company purchased about 12,000 acres of timber lands.

The Walla Walla paper says: A young man named Joseph Hobbs, who several months since, in company with a partner, took up a claim on the Palouse, about thirty miles from Snake river, is missing under circumstances that cause his friends to fear foul play.

The Seattle paper learns from a gentleman who has been on San Juan Island lately that there has been splendid weather this year. Little or no smoke has been in the vicinity, and from what we learn it is the only place on the northern coast where a person can breathe pure air. Col. Thomas Gray and his men have been ordered away to Fort Wrangle, about 170 miles from Sitka, and it is stated that Capt. Ross, U. S. Infantry, is to take command.

If this is a "white man's government," why are the Southern Democrats collecting the colored voters into their clubs?

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON, Saturday, Sept. 19, 1868.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

The rebel Democracy made extraordinary efforts to reduce the Republican majority in Maine below what it was last year, in order to raise the cry of their "rat" reaction all over the country, and to encourage a "great reaction" and to encourage at later regular elections on them in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and other States. From 1840, when Maine [illegible] the ball rolling which resulted in the election of Harrison, the September election in that State has been regarded as a sure indication of the current of public sentiment in other States for the October and November elections. The [illegible] were aware of the great importance of this election, and they sent Pendleton, Cox, Ewing and many more of their most seductive orators into Maine, and expended large sums of money in the canvass. They sent their "last dollar and their last man" to fight the Radicals. They appealed to every prejudice, every home interest, and every sentiment of State pride. The fishing interest and the ship building interest, both of which have been in a languishing and almost ruined condition since the war, are appealed to, and all their misfortunes charged upon the Republicans. The Democrats proposed to reduce taxation by paying the national debt in greenbacks, swindling the creditors out of principal and interest, and thereby had the advantage of the sympathy of the ignorant and dishonest of both parties. Fessenden and the leaders on our side, both in debate and through the press, took high and honorable ground on the financial question. The Democrats contested every point with desperate energy; they left no stone unturned, and yet with all these advantages in their favor, their defeat was the most sweeping that ever befel any party in this country. A gain of 7,000 in the Republican majority in Vermont on the 1st inst., over the majority of last year, demoralized the rebel Democracy, but the vote of Maine last Monday completely routed and broke into fragments the rebel columns and settled the question of the Presidential contest in favor of Grant and Colfax so clearly that there is no longer room for doubt. The Republicans carried every Congressional District and every county, elected State Senator and seven eighths of the House of Representatives and elected Governor Chamberlain over Pillsbury by a majority of more than 20,000 in a total vote of about 130,000, an increase of at least 10,000 votes over the majority of last year, or about eight per cent. In 1840 Harrison carried Maine by a majority of only 411; in 1844 Polk had 11,347 votes over Clay and Van Buren combined. In 1848, although Cass carried the State by a plurality, he was in a minority of 7,841, counting the Whig and Free soil vote. In 1852 Pierce had a majority of 3,415 over Scott and 1,060 over Scott and Hale combined. In 1856 in a total vote of 109,554 Fremont's majority over Buchanan and Filmore was 24,774. Lincoln's majority in 1860, when the total vote was 100,719, over Douglas, Breckinridge and Bell, was 24,504. In 1864 the whole vote was 116,096. Lincoln over McClellan, 21,122. The Republican majority the same year for Governor Cony over Howard was 19,180, in a vote of 111,999; in 1865 Cony was re-elected over Howard by 22,821. In 1866 the Republican majority for Governor Chamberlain over Pillsbury was 27,676, in a vote of 111,571. In 1867 Chamberlain was re-elected over Pillsbury by 11,634. And last Monday, in the largest vote ever cast in the Pine Tree State, Chamberlain was elected Governor the third time over Pillsbury by a majority of 10,000 greater than he received last year, and five or six thousand greater than the average Republican majority for the last twelve years. The news of the great triumph in Maine was received here with shouts of joy, illuminations and the firing of a hundred guns, and was greeted with similar demonstrations of joy in all the principal cities throughout the country.

TROUBLE WITH THE REBELS IN TENNESSEE.

A Committee of the Tennessee Legislature, composed of W. H. Wisener, T. H. Hamilton, and J. H. Agee, visited the President a few days ago and requested him to authorize the location of troops in Tennessee sufficient to aid the State authorities in preserving the peace, executing the laws, and protecting law abiding citizens and the civil government of the State against the lawless violence of the rebels. Mr. Johnson finally granted their request, very grudgingly, it is said, and Secretary Schofield instructed Gen. George H. Thomas, commanding Department of Cumberland, to report without delay what force, in addition to that now under his command, will be required to give all necessary aid to the civil authorities of Tennessee. In the meantime the Legislature has passed the bill authorizing the Governor to call out the militia, and on the 16th inst. Governor Brownlow issued a proclamation calling for the organization of companies of troops to be used in case they should be needed.

THE BREAD AND BUTTER PARTY AT WORK.

The bread and butter fellows are beginning to work vigorously for the rebel ticket. Old Welles has waked up from a long sleep, and is startling the natives with evidences that he "still lives." A few days before the Maine election he caused all the Republicans employed in the Kittery navy yard, in that State, to be discharged, and he is now making a clean sweep in the Philadelphia navy yard. Vallandigham, the "Martyr," not satisfied with the discharge of every Republican from the New York Custom House, telegraphs to Secretary McCulloch from Ohio, in a very peremptory manner, "why are Radicals still appointed to office in this State? This thing must stop." How pleasant it must be for McCulloch and the other renegades of the Administration to be ordered and cuffed about by such traitors and cowardly sneaks as Vallandigham.

ALASKA.

Hiram Ketchum, the newly appointed Collector of Customs for Alaska, was here during the week receiving instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury in relation to the organization of the revenue service in that Territory. Mr. Ketchum, accompanied by two special agents of the Treasury Department, sailed from New York last Wednesday on the Ocean Queen, for Sitka, via Panama and San Francisco.

THE SEPTEMBER SESSION CALLED.

On the 15th Senator Morgan and Gen. Schenck, who were authorized by the Republican members of the 40th Congress to decide the matter, sent out a circular recommending that there be a full attendance of both houses on Monday, not for the purpose of legislation, but to provide for a meeting between this and December so that Congress can come together if the President and the rebel Democracy should attempt to carry out Blair's letter and undertake any revolutionary measures. Very few Senators and members are in Washington now, but many are expected to arrive on the trains to-night and Monday morning, and it is barely possible that a quorum may be present. Gen. Schenck has been here several days, hard at work in the Republican Congressional Committee rooms, and Speaker Colfax arrived from his Rocky Mountain trip yesterday morning.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS FOR CONGRESS.

The Republicans of Illinois have just completed their nominations for the 41st Congress. They have renominated John A. Logan, N. B. Judd, J. F. Farnsworth, E. B. Washburne, E. C. Ingersoll, B. C. Cook, S. M. Cullom, and G. B. Raum, and made the following new nominations: J. B. Hawley, J. H. Moore, L. F. Ross, J. B. Turner, J. S. Martin, J. B. Day. They will elect all who have been renominated, and Hawley, Moore and Hay, undoubtedly, and very likely L. F. Ross in place of L. W. Ross (Democrat), which will be a gain of [illegible] making the [illegible] all the Republicans elected in the present Congress.

The nominations in Pennsylvania [illegible] been completed, and are as follows: [illegible] Myers, Wm. D. Kelley, [illegible] Mercur, [illegible] Moorhead, [illegible] J. Covode, all renominated, and [illegible] new [illegible] Small, [illegible] Packer, [illegible] O. J. Dickey, vice Thaddeus Stevens deceased; H. S. Eckert, W. Townsend, J. Breitenbach and B. L. Berry. In the present Congress we have 18 and the Democrats 6. The elections will make but little change.

The candidates in New Jersey are Wm. Moore, John Hill and G. A. Halsey, renominated, and A. Clark and J. F. Rusling. The Republicans have three and the Democrats two in the present Congress.

In Missouri the candidates are W. A. Pile, R. T. Van Horn and J. F. Benjamin, renominated, and G. A. Finkleburg, J. F. Bush, S. H. Boyd, S. S. Burdett, J. H. Stover, J. F. Asper, and D. P. Dyer.

In Kansas Sidney Clarke has been renominated, and John Taffe has been renominated in Nebraska. Clarke's majority at the last election was 10,896, and Taffe's majority was 748.

The nominations in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Tennessee and one or two other States, have been completed, and most of the names were given in a former letter.

In Massachusetts, Connecticut and New Hampshire no nominations have been made yet, and in New York and several other States the nominations have not been completed. K.

STATE ITEMS.

They are making tombstones in Southern Oregon of native marble.

The woolen mill at Ashland, Jackson county, will be ready to run in about six weeks.

Holladay has sent to Jacksonville for two hundred Chinamen to work on the railroad.

Shephard, a foundry man at Yreka, is talking of moving his establishment to Ashland, in this State.

Mr. Hanley is building a large flat boat at Fort Klamath. When finished he is going to use it on the Lake, bringing his grain up from Link river.

A child of Mr. Phipps, at Jacksonville, about eight months old, found some opium lying in the house, ate a portion of it and died in about two hours.

A La Grande paper says: A train of thirty wagons from Missouri and Arkansas passed through this place on Monday last, bound for Webfoot.

The Polk county paper says: Mr. Henry Byerly had a valuable horse stolen from his brother's stable, at Dallas, on last Saturday night. Officers are in pursuit.

The assessable property of Douglas county for 1868, amounts to $1,476,518. The tax levied (16 mills) amounts to $23,624,288. Poll tax, $913, making a total of $24,537,258. At the commencement of the fiscal year July 1st, the county debt was $420 20. County scrip is worth its face in coin.

The "Long Tom Grant Club" had a spirited meeting on the 2d inst. The following are its officers: President, S. B. Cranston; Vice President, Wm. Kelly; Recording Secretary, H. B. Nichols; Corresponding Secretary, Joseph Lafferty; Treasurer, Elija Kelly.

The Jacksonville Sentinel says: Mr. Wickerson, brother to Captain Wickerson of General Crook's staff, who is employed in the Quartermaster's service, arrived here a few days ago from Camp Warner. He reports all quiet there. Goose Lake valley is settling up rapidly; fifty families are already there. General Crook has taken up a fine ranch in the valley, and in partnership with General Crosby is putting up hay for the winter.

How the National Debt has been Reduced

One fourth of the national debt has been paid since the close of the war. Let not this statement be accepted without proof. The proof is ready to sustain it. The fact that one-fourth of the national debt has been paid since the war ended is easily and clearly demonstrable by official Treasury statements.

In August 1865 the debt which had been audited amounted after deducting the cash in the Treasury, to $2,755,689,571. It is usually assumed that the debt had reached its maximum at that time, as this was the statement made by the Secretary of the Treasury of its amount. On the 1st of September 1868 the audited debt, according to the Treasury statement, amounted to $2,535,613,313. This includes the Alaska purchase and Pacific Railroad bonds, which amounted at that date to $42,514,000. The amount of the debt exclusive of this sum was $2,493,100,313 and the reduction from August 1865 to September, 1868 was therefore $262,589,258, or without deducting the Alaska purchase and railroad bonds, the reduction was $220,075,258. This is the sum by which the debt has apparently been reduced, but is only about one third of the amount of debt growing out of the war which has been paid during the last three years.

The statement of the debt in August, 1865 ($2,755,689,571) made no mention of or allowance for the immense sum of $530,043,658, for which the Government was liable at that time, and which has since been paid off with taxes. These liabilities were for back pay of troops, bounties property lost or destroyed in the late war reimbursements to States, etc.,—the whole being expenses growing directly out of the war. The amount of debt actually paid since August, 1865 (taking no account of Pacific Railroad bonds which are really not a part of the debt,) is $802,000,000. This is a fourth of the whole debt, audited and unaudited, which existed in August, 1865—the actual amount at that date being $3,287,733,229. More than eight hundred million dollars of war indebtedness, besides interest, has been paid during the last three years. To make the matter still more plain, we shall follow this brief statement with a detailed account, showing item by item, how the finances have been managed and the debt reduced.

Connecticut Town Elections

Eastern Democrats who are catching at straws (which never yet saved the life of a drowning man,) are rejoicing over the result of the town elections in Connecticut. They have a singular way of figuring up "gains." The returns are not full, but the Hartford Times, a Democratic paper, after claiming "great Democratic gains, [illegible] remarks that the "Republicans have lost one town and gained three." This a "Democratic gain" with a vengeance. A "gain" of a similar kind is reported in the cities of Hartford and New Haven. The Democratic majority in the former city is put at 750, in the latter at 919. Turning back to our files of last April, we find the following telegraphic dispatch:

CHICAGO, April 6.—New Haven gives English (Dem.) 2,990 majority, Hartford gives 634 Democratic majority.

The aggregate of Democratic majorities in the two cities at the last election was therefore 2,824. It is now 1,669. The Democrats have therefore gained a loss in the two cities of nearly 1,200 votes. Last spring the Democratic majority in the whole State was just 1,571. Their loss in Hartford and New Haven alone therefore almost equals their entire majority in the State at the last election. In 1867 the vote of New Haven was 5,035 Democratic to 3,235 Republican. Democratic majority 1,800. Now the Democrats have in New Haven the magnificent majority of 919 and claim the State in November by 5,000 majority!

The following sums have been paid by the Government during the last eight years:

Paid towards cost of rebellion	$867,000,282 50
Paid in[illegible] on debt	587,479,189 43
Paid State advances for the war	10,330,000 00
Paid [illegible]	106,616,282 50
Paid property destroyed by war, etc	10,000,000 00
Total act[illegible] payment	$1,601,034,754 43

These amounts have actually been paid. Add their aggregate to the present amount of the national debt ($2,500,000,000) and we have the sum which the rebellion has cost the country. The whole of this vast expenditure results from Democratic misrule, treachery and treason.

The Southern wing of the Democratic party rebelled, the Northern wing encouraged them in it, and it cost a very large amount of money—about four thousand millions of dollars—to re-establish the public peace. And now these Democrats, North and South, charge the Republican party with extravagance because so much has been expended to put down a rebellion which Democrats began and carried on for four years. This is equal to the impudence of Wade Hampton and Fort Pillow Forrest in accusing the "Radicals" of meditating treason to the Constitution.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Oregon Legislature.

SALEM, Oct 7.—In the Senate the Committee to whom was referred the memorial of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars for a prohibitory liquor law reported it back with the expression of the opinion that the present is not an expedient time for the adoption of such a law. The Senate spent most of the forenoon in consideration of the report, which, with the memorial was finally ordered printed.

The resolution declaring Sels of Grant county not entitled to a seat was adopted by a vote of fourteen to eight.

Mr. Bayley offered a joint resolution re affirming the former action of the State in granting lands to the Oregon Central Railroad Company and designating the West Side Road as the one entitled. This gave rise to a long discussion. A resolution was adopted requesting the Secretary of State to bring in the original articles of incorporation of the East and West sides. The Secretary produced and read them. Attorneys of the two Companies were invited within the bar to argue their respective rights. Further consideration of the resolution was postponed until to morrow.

In the House the Committee reported a bill for purchasing the right to the Gardner shackle.

Bellinger introduced a bill for the protection of oyster beds.

A message was received from the Governor, stating that the statements in the Biennial Message relating to the Caruthers estate were made upon information of attorneys for the State—not sworn statements. Costs incurred not definitely ascertained.

A large number of bills were introduced. A majority of the special Committee on the Clackamas county contest reported back [illegible] throwing out several alleged illegal votes for Trullinger. Cain is elected by one vote. Report laid on the table till to morrow. Cain will be elected when the report comes to be acted upon. There will be a minority report but it will stand no show to be considered.

Great excitement is prevailing on railroad questions. The Senate joint resolution withdrawing the assent of Oregon to the 14th amendment is made the special order in the House for Friday next.

The bill to change the location of the county seat of Umatilla county has passed both Houses.

LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM, Tuesday, Oct 6, 1868

PROCEEDINGS IN THE SENATE

Mr. Herman presented a bill for relief of A. J. Moody, sheriff of Coos county—to reimburse him for universal and unavoidable expenditures in conveying convicts to the penitentiary. Also a bill relating to common schools. The latter being very voluminous was read only by title and sent to the Printer. I am, therefore, not informed as to its features. Mr Huston introduced a bill to prevent officers of courts and partners of such officers, practicing at the bar of such courts.

THE 14TH AMENDMENT

The Senate has gone and done it! Plumped a chunk right out of the Constitution of the United States! The 14th amendment not long since proclaimed under the great seal of the United States as having been duly ratified by the required number of States, and as therefore a part of the Constitution, is no more! Stout and Cochran and Huston and ten other Senators of the quiet State of Oregon have said that it never was properly presented, never was properly ratified and that therefore, it is of no binding force! It is "dispersed" along with the carpet baggers! The Congress which sits on the verge of the Government is to be informed that Oregon [illegible] assent. Oregon has gone back on the ratification. The resolution withdrawing the assent of the State was taken up this forenoon and after being discussed till nearly night, was adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Cochran, Crawford, Cyrus Dr[illegible]bis, Ford, Hendershott, Holtaclaw, Huston, Isom, Miller of Jackson, Stout, Travitt and Burch 13. Nays—Adams, Bayley, Brown Cornelius, Herman, Miller of Marion, Pershbaker, Powell and Thompson—9. The thirteen first mentioned are the illustrious names to go down to posterity as the men who butted the bull off the bridge.

The argument presented by the Democratic rescinders was in substance about as follows: The Constitution, as made by the "Fathers," was a bully thing and never needed any amendment. Fourteenth amendment never properly or legally presented to the States, because two thirds of the Senators and Representatives of each and all the States did not concur in submitting it. [This course will take Congress and the State Department down a peg or two.] The ratification of the amendment was never submitted to the people of Oregon. [As the United States Constitution provides that amendments shall be submitted to the Legislatures of the States it was improper illegal and fraudulent that the 14th amendment was not submitted to the people of the State. Of course it was!] It was never legally acted upon by the Legislature of Oregon. What was done was done by fraud. [Here put in any one of Beriah's editorials about the frauds in Grant county reciting how two members of the Black Republican persuasion had certificates of election obtained by fraud, how they held their seats till after the ratification of the amendment and were then put out and two Democratic contestants admitted. This will explain how the action of the Legislature ratifying the amendment was illegal and fraudulent.] The ratification resolution did not express the will of the Legislature when purged of illegal members. Fourteenth amendment was never submitted to the people of the rebellious States, was imposed upon them. If we respect the Constitution bound to leave it as "Fathers" made it. Radicals are trying to destroy it. Do you want your sister to marry a nigger?

Of course there was a good deal more talk than this, but I have "biled" it down and leaving out a great deal of irrelevant matter, the argument amounted about to the above.

Herman, Cornelius and Adams answered completely the charges of fraud in the ratification and proved by the record that the resolution recited a falsehood when it said the ratification was not the legally expressed will of the Legislature. They said the ratification was in issue before the people at the election of 1866, which was the fact, and on that issue a majority of members favorable to the amendment was elected, and in accordance with the will of the people they voted for ratification. They also proved by the record that an attempt to rescind the resolution of ratification, made after the Democratic members from Grant were admitted, failed, and that the assent of the House was thereby confirmed. Dr Bayley who, two years ago voted against ratification, said that he should oppose the withdrawal of assent, because since the ratification by this Legislature, the reconstruction of the States had been nearly completed under the operation of the amendment or kindred laws, and to now destroy the amendment would have the effect to undo all that had been done toward the restoration of the Union and to put everything back into a state of chaos. To the assertion made by Stout that there never was a time when the amendment could have been ratified except through the fraud of keeping in the House illegal members from Grant county he said that he knew, by personal relations with members that there never was a time when it could have been defeated, even had the Democratic contestants from Grant been in their seats. Dr Lockhart would not in any case have voted against ratification if his vote would defeat it. Mr Adams made an unanswerable argument in support of the legality of the action of the House two years ago. The House, he said, is made the sole judge of the election and qualification of its members and from their decisions in that behalf there is no appeal and no judgment of a court or a subsequent House could operate as a decision affecting the legality of its conduct. The House, two years ago, recognized as members the persons who held certificates of election till a judicial examination proved that other parties were entitled to the seats. While those persons were thus recognized as members, they were members de facto and every vote they cast had the same legal effect as though there had been no contest. Their votes, then, on the ratification resolution were legal exactly as were the votes of any other members.

IN THE HOUSE

The forenoon was mostly consumed in the inconclusive discussion on the bill concerning roads and highways.

Mr Davis from the Committee on Printing reported that the printing of five hundred copies of the Reports of Supreme Court decisions could be had for $758.

Mr Gaxley's railroad memorial was then taken up and debated for the balance of the day. Being in attendance in the Senate I did not hear the railroad discussion and am unable to give any account of it.

WALLAMET MEDICAL COLLEGE

Owing to causes which may not be of interest to the public Drs Wythe Plummer McAffee and Sharples have recently resigned their respective Professorships in the Medical Department of the Wallamet University. For the present, I am informed lectures will be delivered on their several themes, by the remaining members of the Faculty.

GEN. CROOK ON GEN. GRANT

While here, Gen. Crook was asked in a conversation with a gentleman what were the facts in relation to the charges of intemperance preferred against Gen Grant. Without expressing any political bias or opinion, Gen. Crook said that he had known much of Gen Grant during the late war and since, and that during all his acquaintance he had never seen anything to support the charges; that, in company, when other officers were drinking, he had generally observed that Gen. Grant declined, that he considered him rather an abstemious man. I doubt if Gen. Crook has expressed any political predilections to anybody, but as Beriah Brown has on one or two occasions classed him as a Democrat, I can see no reason why he and the Rev. Chadband should not take this testimony of his as strictly impartial and truthful and dry up harping on Gen. Grant's drunkenness.

John F. Wilson, a member of the Scandinavian Society of San Francisco, states that there are over 1,800 members in that Society and that after a canvass of them all not one Democrat was found among them! Every member who is a voter will vote for Grant! Swedes and Norwegians love liberty and hate oppression, and will vote their sentiments.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO OCTOBER 7.

Big Meeting of the New York Rioters.

NEW YORK, Oct 5.—The greatest mass meeting ever held in New York took place this evening at Tammany Hall. The Democratic procession had in its ranks a [illegible] the estimates of an exceptionally large [illegible]. The length of the procession exceeded three miles. [illegible] Union Square was [illegible] in the extreme. The [illegible] brilliantly lit with torches [illegible] illuminations. [illegible] The throng is roughly estimated at 50,000 persons and stretched [illegible] to Eleventh street. Tammany Hall was filled [illegible] and many ladies were present. Gov. Early Smith presided and Sanford E. Church and O. G. Hall made speeches. A letter was read from Gen. McClellan paying a high compliment to Governor Seymour [illegible] that the Republican party [illegible] Constitutional [illegible] his intention to support Seymour and Blair.

Connecticut Town Elections

[illegible] Oct 5.—[illegible] from Connecticut deny that there have been any Democratic gains [illegible] elections yesterday. From the figures given it appears compared with the vote last fall that the Democrats made [illegible]. As compared with the vote of last spring the Republicans gain.

From Mexico.

We have dates to September 20th. President Juarez [illegible] congratulates the nation [illegible] and the failure of all revolutionary [illegible] subjects which still remain unsettled. He hopes Congress will pass laws in favor of immigration and [illegible] improve the [illegible].

[illegible] has published a statement [illegible] the circumstances attending the death of her husband.

Several [illegible] have been before Congress. The [illegible] with the United States will soon be under discussion in Congress. Ministers Morales and Iglesias [illegible] Senor Morales [illegible] however expected that Congress will ratify them.

Decrease of the National Debt

WASHINGTON, Oct 7.—The statement of the Public Debt issued yesterday afternoon shows the total debt less cash in the treasury to be $2,[illegible]. The amount of coin in the Treasury is nearly $90,000,000 and of currency in the Treasury $13,[illegible].

Four million three hundred and twenty thousand dollars in bonds were issued during the month to the Pacific [illegible]. Excluding these bonds the net decrease [illegible] during the month [illegible].

NEW YORK, Oct 7.—The Haytien steamer Galtee arrived [illegible] from New York with a large cargo of [illegible] ammunition. She had a large [illegible] of [illegible] Haytien negroes and some English and French [illegible]. [illegible] the Sylvain and Alerte. [illegible]

Nashy in Georgia

ATLANTA, Oct 4.—The Legislature to-day examined the eligibility of Beard, Bleecher, and Davis. After a full investigation they found that Beard had in his veins more than one eighth negro blood. A report was then adopted that Beard was ineligible.

The House then adjourned sine die.

Miscellaneous.

BUFFALO, Oct 5.—The twentieth annual convention of the Free Will Baptists of North America met this afternoon. About 400 delegates were present from all parts of the country.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct 6.—A public reception will be given to Gen. McClellan by his old comrades in arms in this city. The reception committee is composed of [illegible] generals. It is announced that no political demonstration [illegible] will be permitted [illegible].

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct 6.—The Governor has signed the registration bill. Both houses have passed bills prescribing [illegible] election. The Senate bill makes it a misdemeanor for any person to challenge a vote, punishable by fine and imprisonment. It is probable that the judges of each county will designate the number of voting places. This is done in order to have all the voting take place at the court houses. Democrats strongly oppose the registration and election bills.

Another Massacre of Negroes in Louisiana.

NEW YORK, Oct 7.—A New Orleans dispatch to the Tribune of October 6th states that three men [illegible] Justice Mr. Bentley in the presence of his school [illegible]. He then had warrants issued for the arrest of his assailants. [illegible] the warrant was executed a band of [illegible] commenced slaughtering the negroes. The New Orleans Tribune states that 100 negroes were killed and wounded. The office of the newspaper the Progress was gutted and its type and presses thrown into the street. Mr. [illegible] the editor was whipped.

The Times of the [illegible] says that 15 Republicans and 3 Democrats were killed at Shreveport. Armed parties [illegible] the country.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

LONDON, Oct 5.—The new deep sea submarine telegraph cable [illegible] from Malta to Alexandria, Egypt was successfully completed on Saturday.

MADRID, Oct 6.—Gen. Prim has arrived and been received with great enthusiasm.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 7.—In the Union County Convention last night an ineffectual attempt was made to rescind the rule restricting the offering of names for Supervisors [illegible] nominations to ward delegates respectively. This effort was instigated by a [illegible] with some of the names already presented to the convention and that unless the control of the matter was [illegible] the body of the Convention [illegible] weaken the general ticket. A majority of the Convention, however, refused [illegible]. W. A. Quarles, who was a candidate for the office of Public Administrator, before the Convention presented an affidavit stating that he was offered the [illegible] delegates from the Third and Fifth Wards [illegible] for $500, which he refused. The Convention [illegible] to investigate the charges this evening. [illegible] Killinan last night [illegible] Mike Brannigan was arrested [illegible].

Suits have been commenced [illegible] over $64,000 from the [illegible] for violation of the Passenger Act in bringing 64 passengers to this port from Sydney, and also at the Jennie Berthena to recover $7[illegible] for bringing 71 Chinese to this port in violation of the same law.

There will be a mass meeting of Union Republicans at Platt's Hall this evening to be addressed by Thompson Campbell.

The Democratic Rebellion

Not a great while ago at a meeting of the rebels in Georgia held at Atlanta, July 8th to ratify the nomination of Seymour and Blair, a speech was delivered by ex United States Senator and ex Confederate Secretary of State Robert Toombs. In the speech he boldly avows that the war was begun by the Democracy. He says:

General Grant tells you he wants peace! What sort of peace? The peace of the tyrant of Russia when he sent the poor Poles in chains to Siberia and after having disposed of them in this manner issued his proclamation that "Order reigns in Warsaw!" [Laughter and cheers.] That is the peace that General Grant wants. I will tell you another fact which is enough for this time, THAT AS THE LATE WAR WAS PRODUCED BY THE DEFEATED DEMOCRATIC PARTY IN 1860 we shall never have peace until it is restored in 1868.

IT IS AN INVARIABLE LAW OF NATURE that every human being shall do those acts which he thinks will be most good to him and that he shall [illegible]. The [illegible] will be remind[ed] that Kohn & Fishel are the leaders of fashion, the lowest in price and no man should wear clothes unless they are purchased at Kohn & Fishel's No 91 Front street.

TO THE ENTERPRISING
Farmers of Oregon!
CASTONS'S X-L-SIOR
BROAD-CAST GRAIN-SOWER.

THIS VALUABLE LABOR SAVING MACHINE which has already been adopted in nearly every Agricultural county in the State of California and in every county where it has been presented has been brought out lately by

who holds the exclusive right to the same for the State of Oregon and is now ready to accommodate the farmers of this State with machines and to sell county rights to manufacture the same.

This machine saves the entire cost and labor of sowing a field excepting the cost of a machine—the same team being used for sowing and harrowing as is used for harrowing alone, the farmer or his boy riding and driving his team instead of walking and carrying his heavy sack and then walking and dragging his grain in.

The inventor of this valuable aid to farmers is a man of large experience in seeding machines and has happily succeeded in this invention in producing a machine which while it carries the farmer as if on a sulky sows wheat, barley [illegible] with greater regularity than the same can be sown by hand, and at the same time the harrow attached [illegible] immediately behind covers the grain and [illegible]. Any intelligent farmer who has ever carried a sack and sowed grain will readily see that the X-L-SIOR Grain Sower will save its entire cost in labor alone—to say nothing of its saving in seed—in sowing comparatively but few acres, and we have placed an important estimate upon the enterprise of our Oregon farmers if this machine is not generally adopted in this State as it has already been in California, and where the farmers write to the inventors respecting it after this manner:

LINCOLN (Placer Co.), Sept. 5, '68
Mr. H. A. Gast:—Dear Sir, I have two complete machines (X-L-SIOR) which I challenge the State to beat for sowing grain. I have not as many fingers in the shaft as you directed, but I do not want my machines to sow any better than they do. I have sowed and gauged them perfectly.
T. C. [illegible]RINGTON

By addressing or calling upon Mr. Brusie at C. Hopkins' corner of Front and Morrison streets, in this city machines or County Rights to manufacture and sell the machines can be purchased at reasonable rates.

SCIENCE AND INFIDELITY.

A COURSE OF LECTURES ON THE ABOVE SUBJECTS will be given in the

M. E. CHURCH, PORTLAND,

BY THE

REV. DR. WYTHE,

Beginning, Tuesday, Oct. 6th.

TICKETS FOR THE COURSE admitting a lady and gentleman	$3 00
Admission to Single Lectures	50

The proceeds of the Lectures will be applied to aid in completing the New Church Edifice.

LECTURE FIRST—OCT 6TH
History of Infidelity—Relation of Science to Religion and Skepticism.

LECTURE SECOND—OCT 13TH
The Record of Faith or the Testimony of History to Revealed Truth.

LECTURE THIRD—OCT 20TH
The True Principle of Interpretation—or, Errors in Science no real objection to Revealed Truth.

LECTURE FOURTH—OCT 27TH
Science against Atheism and Pantheism and in favor of the personality, greatness and goodness of God.

LECTURE FIFTH—NOV 3D
Geology in favor of the Bible.

LECTURE SIXTH—NOV 10TH
The same subject continued.

LECTURE SEVENTH—NOV 17TH
The Testimony of Physiology to the Immortality of the Soul.

LECTURE EIGHTH—NOV 24TH
The Mediatorial Doctrine of Christianity in accordance with Nature.

The above programme is both novel and bold. Dr Wythe takes up the gauntlet thrown down by modern Infidelity. We trust the Lectures will afford our citizens intellectual recreation and profit, as well as aid the Trustees in completing the edifice which promises to be such an ornament to the city.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

In the OREGONIAN of the 6th inst [illegible] which in justice to the Pioneers and their friends ne[illegible] [illegible]. The letter says: "This club (the C[illegible]) received no challenge from the Pi[illegible] [illegible] them at the State Fair." The following letter speaks for itself as to whether such challenge was received by the Clackamas Club:

OREGON CITY, Sept. 17th, 18[illegible]

"J. R. WILEY Esq. Sec'y P. B. B. C.—Dear Sir: [illegible] of the Clackamas B. B. Club held this even[ing] [illegible] your communication of the 15th inst. was p[illegible] [illegible] reply would state that this club cannot [illegible] against the Fair in Salem for premiums. [illegible]

"E. D. Pol[illegible],
"Sec'y C[illegible] B. B. Club

After this refusal the Pi[oneers] [illegible] the ide[a] [illegible] during the Fair and ceased to practice. On Th[illegible] day, the same day mentioned by the C[illegible], the following telegram was received by Capt. B[illegible] at [illegible] place:

"SALEM [illegible] A. M.
"CAPT. J. BUCHTEL.—Cla[ckamas] [illegible] here in force. B[illegible] the boys up. [illegible]

At that time six members of the Pi[oneer] Club wer[e] [illegible] this city, four of whom, starting at 2 P. M., and tra[velling] the most of the night, reached Salem, where they fo[und] the Clackamas in full force as they expe[cted] [illegible] supplied with their own bats and other equip[ment] [illegible] the simple exception of shirts, notwith[standing] [illegible] of Mr. Pope that they were wish[illegible] other necessary equipments. The Pi[oneers] were natur[ally] surprised when they learned that by some me[ans] [illegible] the name of "Cl[illegible]" had dis[appe]ared and said nine had by some [illegible] [illegible] base ball regulations, adopted the [illegible] of "Webf[oot]," and entered themselves as such. The Pione[ers] refused to play the Clacka[mas] [illegible] and thereupon they re-assumed their [illegible] and the game was played—Clack[amas] vs. Pi[oneers] [illegible] resulting in the defeat of the latter.

Having declined to play at the Fair, were they [illegible] morally obliged to remain firm in such [illegible] unless [illegible] mutual consent it had been differently arranged; [illegible] least, have notified the Pioneers that it was possible [illegible] them to go.

The Pioneers have ever clung to the [illegible] "Friend[ship], manliness and fairness," and when they cannot [illegible] in such a spirit then they will withdraw from [illegible]. Thus far the Pioneers trust they have b[illegible] the [illegible] commendably and will bear [illegible] stimulated to greater effort in the [illegible] game of base ball.

Pardon us for this lengthy com[munication] [illegible] but it is [illegible] that the friends of the Pio[neers] may see that [illegible] light their record is clear.

PIONEER B. B. CLUB.

SILK.—Experiments on a small scale have [illegible] the fact that the production of this [illegible] in O[regon] may be made a source of profit. The trial of [illegible] branch of industry by our fellow town[sm]an, Dr Koeh[ler] shows conclusively that the healthiest [illegible], the larg[est] cocoons and the best silk can be produced here with [illegible] comparatively a small amount of labor. The consumption [illegible] consumed by the people of the United States [illegible] is now [illegible] will be larger than that of any other [illegible]. Silk manufacturers are already protected by [illegible] Federal tariff and will probably continue to be so, e[ven] when the fiscal demands of the country are less p[illegible] sufficient reason for prolonging such protecti[on] [illegible]. If Oregon will go into the business of rais[ing] [illegible] and prepare the raw material for the manufactu[re] [illegible] by winding it from the cocoon, cleaning and twist[ing] or throwing it into the various [illegible] of the [illegible], organ[zine], tram sewing, tailors twist, etc., the producers [illegible] raw material will hardly fail to obtain such p[illegible] from Congress as throwsters, dyers, and [illegible] silk winders have now. With that advantage it wou[ld] come to pass, whenever we chose to exert ourselves, th[at] three fourths of all the silk goods worn in the Uni[ted] [illegible] would be the produce of cocoons raised in the [illegible] [illegible] States. No greater prize was ever offered an ent[er]prising people than is offered Oregon in this silk bu[siness].

COMMISSIONERS' COURT.—The County Co[mmissioners] [illegible] yesterday afternoon. The matter of letting the contr[act] for keeping the county paupers was taken up, and af[ter] [illegible] it was awarded to Mr. A. W. Hart upon th[e] following terms: The contract begins on the [illegible] day of November 1868. The adults are to be kep[t] [illegible] board and all necessary medical att[endance] at the rate of [illegible] dollars and twenty five cents eac[h] [illegible] children under twelve years of age at half the above rat[e]. What the exact terms of the contract are we did n[ot] learn, so we cannot say [illegible] receiving it is to keep [illegible] paupers [illegible] purchased by the county [illegible] that as it [illegible] to the tax payers will [illegible] [illegible] plan and to that ext[ent] the arrangement will suit the people.

MOVE BACK AT.—The wheels of progress are rolli[ng] [illegible]ward. A [illegible] road company has been incorp[orated] [illegible]. We thought Oregon in luck when it began [illegible] look as if she was to have two lines of railroad up [the] valley. Now it seems three are contemplated. T[he] following from the [illegible] will explain itself to the [illegible] undersigned [illegible]. The Willamette Railway Co. [illegible] filed their articles of incorporation yesterday, in th[e] [illegible] Secretary of State['s] office with A. M. Loryea, J[illegible] Nixon and [illegible] as incorporators; capital stoc[k] $3,600,000. The company propose to build a road fro[m] Portland on the east side of the Willamette, and co[n]necting with the Oregon Central Railroad at Alban[y] [illegible] Corvallis [illegible] Eugene City as shall hereafter be dete[rmined].

THE THEATRE was well attended last night and we [illegible] [illegible] that we were not able to be present during the [illegible] piece, but [illegible] who witnessed it we learn th[at] the audience was greatly pleased with the entire trou[pe] [illegible] the beautiful drama of "Retribution." There is [illegible] opinion expressed by all we who have seen Mr. Bate[s] [illegible] his labors on the stage in Portland but that they ex[illegible] any actors and actresses who have ever visited the city [illegible]. [illegible] was [illegible] with laughter at Marg[illegible] [illegible] Cummings and Mr. Robinson [illegible] Fuller [illegible] expressions of appreciation from t[he] audience. To-night the bill comprises the comedy [of] "Still Waters Run Deep" and the farce, "Perfection," [with Mr.] and Mrs. Bates appearing in both.

PORTLAND, Oct 7th, 1868

[illegible] of the 6th inst appears a letter which in justice to the Pioneers and their friends needs a [illegible]. The letter says "This club (the Clackamas) [illegible] the challenge from the Pioneers to meet at the State Fair." The [illegible] letter speaks for itself as to whether any [illegible] was received by the Clackamas Club:

"OREGON CITY, Sept 17th, 1868
[illegible] Sec'y P B B C—Dear Sir: At [illegible] the Clackamas B B Club held this evening [illegible] of the 15th inst was presented, and [illegible] state that this club cannot possibly compete [illegible] for premium offered.
"S B POPE,
"Sec'y Clackamas B B Club."

[illegible] the Pioneers abandoned the idea of [illegible] Fair and ceased to practice. On Thursday [illegible] mentioned by the Clackamas, the following was received by Capt Buchtel at this place:

"SALEM—9 A M
"Capt J. Buchtel:—Clackamas here in force. Bring [illegible] CLEMENT."

[illegible] six members of the Pioneer Club were in the city, four of whom, starting at 2 P M and traveling all night, reached Salem, where they found [illegible] "in full force" as they expected, fully [illegible] with their own bats and other equipments with the exception of shirts notwithstanding the assertion of Mr. Pope that they were without uniforms and equipments. The Pioneers were naturally [illegible] when they learned that by some magic the name of "Clackamas" had disappeared, and nine had by some means unknown to [illegible] adopted the name of "Webfoot" and entered themselves as such. The Pioneers [illegible] to play the Clackamas under an assumed name, and [illegible] upon they re-assumed their legitimate [illegible] the game was played—Clackamas vs Pioneers [illegible] the defeat of the latter.

[illegible] had to play at the Fair were they not [illegible] to remain firm in such refusal unless [illegible] it had been differently arranged or [illegible] notified the Pioneers that it was possible [illegible]

[illegible] have ever clung to the motto "Friend [illegible] and fairness," and when they cannot [illegible] spirit then they will withdraw from the [illegible] the Pioneers trust they have borne their [illegible] and will bear defeat philosophically [illegible] to greater effort in the healthful and exciting game of base ball.

[illegible] for this lengthy communication, but it is desired that the friends of the Pioneers may see that in the [illegible] record is clear.

PIONEER B B CLUB

[illegible] iments on a small scale have demonstrated [illegible] the production of this commodity in Oregon may be made a source of profit. The trial of this [illegible] fairly by our fellow townsman, Dr. Koehler, [illegible] that the healthiest worms, the largest cocoons and the best silk can be produced here with comparatively a small amount of labor. The consumption of [illegible] by the people of the United States either [illegible] will be larger than that of any other [illegible] manufacturers are already protected by the [illegible] tariff, and will probably continue to be so [illegible] the local demands of the country are less pressing [illegible] for prolonging such protection can be [illegible] will go into the business of raising and preparing the raw material for the manufacturer [illegible] from the cocoon, cleaning and twisting [illegible] into the various classes of thread, organ [illegible] tailors' twist, etc., the producers of [illegible] will hardly fail to obtain such prices from [illegible] as throwsters, dyers and soft [illegible] have now. With that advantage it would [illegible] whenever we chose to exert ourselves, that [illegible] of all the silk goods worn in the United [illegible] the produce of cocoons raised in the Pa[illegible] No greater prize was ever offered an enterprising people than is offered Oregon in this silk business.

COURT.—The County Commissioners met [illegible] The matter of letting the contract [illegible] the county paupers was taken up and after [illegible] it was awarded to Mr A W Hart upon the [illegible] terms. The contract begins on the first [illegible] 1868. The adults are to be kept [illegible] board and all necessary medical attendance at the rate of four dollars and twenty five cents each [illegible] under twelve years of age at half the above rates. What the exact terms of the contract are we did not learn, nor whether the party receiving it is to keep the [illegible] on the poor farm purchased by the county. Be [illegible] as it may the expense to the tax payers will be [illegible] by the proposed plan and to that extent [illegible] will suit the people.

NEW RAILROAD.—The wheels of progress are rolling [illegible] A new railroad company has been incorporated. [illegible] thought Oregon in luck when it began to [illegible] as if she was to have two lines of railroad up the valley. Now it seems three are contemplated. The [illegible] from the Unionist will explain itself to those [illegible] "The Willamette Railway Company [illegible] their articles of incorporation yesterday, in the [illegible] of State's office, with A M Leryea, Jos. [illegible] and John Crawford as incorporators, capital stock [illegible] The company propose to build a road from Portland, on the east side of the Willamette and connecting with the Oregon Central Railroad at Albany, Corvallis or Eugene City as shall hereafter be determined."

THE [illegible] was well attended last night and we regret that we were not able to be present during the first [illegible] but from a friend who witnessed it, we learn that the [illegible] was greatly pleased with the entire troupe [illegible] drama of Retribution. There is n[illegible] by those who have seen Mr. Bates and his lady upon the stage in Portland but that they excel any actor and actress who have ever visited the city before. Everybody was filled with laughter at Margery and Jo, by Miss Cummings and Mr Robinson. Mr Fuller also received expressions of appreciation from the audience. To-night the bill comprises the comedy of "Still Waters Run Deep" and the farce "Perfection," Mr. and Mrs. Bates appearing in both.

AUCTION SALE.—The auctioneer of Portland (everybody knows we mean A. B. Richardson, Esq.) yesterday disposed of lots numbered 5 and 6 in block numbered 115 [illegible] Front and First and Clay and Columbia streets, to Mr J B Price for the sum of $4,250. The improvements on this property are of but little value, and the price paid for it is an [illegible] of confidence in the continuance of that growth which Portland has enjoyed hitherto.

CONTEST.—Mr Hyman Cheap John proposes to contest the right of the Auction [illegible] man to sell his merchandise on the street at night without paying night auction license. The A[illegible] man is funnier than C. J., and so he gets the greatest audience. [illegible] the [illegible] man only pays five dollars while Cheap John pays seventy five per quarter.

LET'S DANCE dull care away, says the poet and to [illegible] a nice place to go is to Prof Cardinell's soiree next Saturday evening. A pleasant time is sure. The Professor desires his class to meet this evening. On Saturday, remember the regular Soiree.

PROPOSALS.—Attention is called to the advertisement under the head of New To-Day, inviting proposals to furnish 50,000 pounds or more of beef cattle at Camp Harney. Bids for the contract to furnish the above will be received until next Wednesday, the 14th inst., at Fort Vancouver.

ORNAMENTAL.—The cornice on the new brick of Messrs Holmes & Goodenough is highly ornamental. We are not enough of an architect to describe it, but will say that the design exhibits excellent taste and is very beautiful.

THE CARRIE.—The [illegible] Fisher, which was confiscated and sold some time ago, has been thoroughly overhauled and rendered better than when she was new. Her name now is The Carrie. We presume she will be running very soon.

COMMENCED.—W[illegible] have commenced clearing away the rubbish and laying the foundation of a new building on the site of J. P. Walker's Sash and Door Factory which was burned last summer.

THE ACTIVE.—Up to 12 o'clock last night nothing had been heard of the Active, past due from Victoria at this port. She is probably again detained by fog and smoke.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamer Oriflamme, Capt. [illegible] left San Francisco for Portland yesterday. She may be expected Friday night or Saturday.

NEW ADS.—Stitzel & Upton offer some fine property for sale cheap. A good chance for investment.

Mr. DuBois has opened a fine assortment of furs and offers to buy furs and sell the same ready made.

A PRETTY FOOT is not pretty when encased in an ill formed, unfashionable shoe. Everybody knows this and we expect this will all go to Messrs. Randall & Sunderland at the corner of First and Alder streets where the most elegant make of everything in the line of boots and shoes can be obtained at reasonable prices. The children must wear shoes and R. & S. have made extensive preparation for supplying the wants of the little ones. Their stock of children's shoes embraces the largest and most varied assortment we have ever seen in this market, while for men their boots and shoes are of all sorts, sizes and makes. They have also excellent workmen who are turning out some fine custom work to order. They would be pleased to have everybody examine their stock.

PREMIUM HARNESS.—The people of Portland, and all Oregon in fact, have long known that no better harness and saddlery could be made anywhere than has been manufactured by S. Sherlock & Co. At the State Fair last week they exhibited a sample of their work, which took the first premium, just as its strength of construction and beauty of finish deserved. Messrs Sherlock & Co. are constantly in receipt of the genuine A No. 1 Concord harness, which their facilities for importing enable them to sell on the most favorable terms. Their own workmen are also making up the very best of everything in their line.

SPECTACLES AND EYE GLASSES.—G. Frankel, the practical optician of San Francisco, is in Portland and can be seen at Mr. [illegible] South's, No. 90 Front street for a few days for the purpose of supplying those that require assistance for their eyes with his celebrated Russian Pebble Spectacles and Eye-glasses. Mr. F. has so adapted practice with the view to this delicate organ, the eye, that no matter how critical the case may be, no one need despair if he leaves the judicious selection of these instruments to him. Mr. F. has also a large selection of new styles of opera, field and marine glasses, medical [illegible] and microscopes, telescopes and optical instruments of all descriptions.

MR. WALL purposes opening a Night School on next Monday 12th inst at 7 o'clock P. M. at the Hibernian Hall, next the Catholic Church (up stairs). His course of instruction will comprise the ordinary branches of Education—Reading, Writing, English Grammar, Arithmetic, Book keeping [illegible] etc.

FURNISHED ROOMS, with Board for gentleman and wife at Mrs Wright's 203 Second Street.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

WILSON BOWLBY (Republican) and JOHN BURNETT (Democrat) candidates for Electors will address the people on the public issues of the day as follows:

Eugene City October 10,	McMinnville October 16;
Corvallis October 12,	Hillsboro, October 17;
Albany October 14	Portland October 19;
Dallas October 15	Oregon City October 20.

Speaking to commence at 1 o'clock P. M. each day.

DR. W. B. CARDWELL,
GRADUATE OF BELLEVUE HOSPITAL MEDICAL COLLEGE,
PUPIL OF PROFESSOR MOTT

Last two years engaged in Hospital and Dispensary Practice in New York City.
OFFICE—No. 80 First St., adjoining Buchtel's Gallery, Portland, Oregon ad28d3ptf

The Electro-Silicon is not an artificial preparation but a natural production, or more properly a natural deposit—found, like Coal, Borax, and other natural productions, in certain localities. For polishing purposes it cannot be excelled. For sale everywhere.

Consumption! Have you got it? Be patient, cautious, persevering, and above all firmly resolved that you will conquer it. Do not look down to the grave but up to the bright blue sky, court the pure air, take appropriate exercise, sleep in a well ventilated room. Do this, and use NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP freely and you will surely get rid of it.

Always Safe! Always Effectual!—Fever and Ague is speedily and thoroughly cured by DR. E. COOPER'S UNIVERSAL MAGNETIC BALM. Its operation is not simply to suspend the disease for a time, but to remove the cause.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior products as for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

Joe and Bill

Come dear old comrade you and I
Will steal an hour from days gone by—
The shining days when life was new
And all was bright with morning dew—
The lusty days of long ago
When you were Bill and I was Joe

Your name may flaunt a titled trail
Proud as a cockerel's rainbow tail
And mine as brief appendix wear
As Tam O'Shanter's luckless mare
To day old friend remember still
That I am Joe and you are Bill

You've won the great world's envied prize
And grand you look in people's eyes
With HON and LL D
In big brave letters fair to see—
Your fist old fellow—off they go—
How are you Bill? How are you Joe?

You've won the judge's ermined robe
You've taught your name to half the globe
You've sung mankind a deathless strain
You've made the dead past live again
The world may call you what it will
But you and I are Joe and Bill

The chaffing young folks stare and say
See those old buffers bent and gray
They talk like fellows in their teens
Mad poor old boys That's what it means —
And shake their heads they little know
The throbbing hearts of Bill and Joe

How Bill forgets his hour of pride
While Joe sits smiling at his side
How Joe in spite of time's disguise
Finds the old schoolmate in his eyes
Those calm stern eyes that melt and fill
As Joe looks fondly up at Bill

Ah pensive scholar what is fame?
A fitful tongue of leaping flame
A giddy whirlwind's fickle gust
That lifts a pinch of mortal dust
A few swift years and who can show
Which dust was Bill and which was Joe

The weary idol takes his stand,
Holds out his bruised and aching hand
While gaping thousands come and go—
How vain it seems this empty show
Till all at once his pulses thrill
'Tis poor old Joe's "God bless you Bill!"

And shall we breathe in happier spheres
The names that pleased our mortal ears
In some sweet lull of harp and song
For earth born spirits none too long
Just whispering of the world below
Where this was Bill and that was Joe!

No matter while our home is here
No sounding name is half so dear
When fades at length our lingering day
Who cares what pompous tombstones say?
Read on the hearts that love us still
Hic jacet Joe Hic jacet Bill
Dr Holmes in Atlantic Monthly

Democratic Sentiment

The editor of the St Louis Democrat gives a scathing review of a speech recently made by Glover, in which he claims that resistance to the acts of Congress was obedience to the will of God The following extract, from the comments of the Democrat, will apply as well to the law-contemning bloviators of this latitude as that of St Louis

"You say that Congress has done many things which you are pleased to call tyranny' We differ about that Our difference we are willing to submit to the decision of the people, at legal and fair elections If you are also willing, shut up your bluster Argue more and threaten less If you are not willing, if you mean what you say when you declare that you 'will not endure this or that, even if the people sanction it, then let ballots alone and get your muskets ready as quickly as you like Only bear in mind that you will never go back to ballots again This is a serious matter You may think it a joke to talk treason, because men who did so eight years ago are alive The more you talk in that vein, the more you convince men that mercy to traitors was and is cruelty to the State Your bloody speeches if they do no other harm put pith and power into every arm that is raised to bar disfranchised rebels from the ballot-box They put far away the day when the people of this or any other restored State will dare to trust those who have once tried to trample into dust the laws But you cannot measure the harm that may be done Men of hot blood hear men of hot blood and violent passions will read these incendiary words If you mean fight that is the way to bring it If you have any idea of winning by a peaceful ballot you destroy your last chance You stir up bad men to make trouble, and when that trouble comes your speeches and their deeds will justify if they do not even force the sternest measures If you threaten to fight, think you that others will leave their guns unloaded? If you organize armed bands, do you imagine that there will be no others about the polls? Your threats force those who stand by law to prepare to sustain it, not with ballots only You best know whether that is what you want Perhaps you think the State has not been desolated enough Perhaps you see other houses where you would like to see blackened ruins Perhaps you think that not enough of our young men have gone out not to return Perhaps you care nothing for the blighting curse that will light upon the man who causes another war But count the cost before you scatter firebrand speeches about the State

Gen Dix and Gov Seymour

The New York Herald has a few words to say about the opinion which Gen Dix has given recently of Seymour It says

A special correspondent at Paris, who speaks from his personal knowledge of Gen Dix's views of our Presidential contest, says that the General would "regard the election of Seymour as a great calamity," that "the only hope for the peace and tranquility of the country during the next four years is in the firmness, good sense and patriotism of General Grant" that the Tammany Convention platform on the five twenties means a violation of the public faith, that this platform and "the indecision of Seymour as well as his conduct during the rebellion" and the elements making up the present Democratic party "ought to be decisive of the approaching contest"

These opinions at this time from our Minister at Paris are exceedingly interesting and suggestive. General Dix is known as a war Democrat As a party man he has never been identified with the Republican organization He was appointed to Paris in fact, mainly because he was opposed to the extreme measures and programme of the Radicals, and because he leaned rather to the reconstruction policy of President Johnson Gen Dix, as a war Democrat, before he left us was associated in a movement looking to the reconstruction of the Democratic party, so as to bring it up to the new order of things—the fixed facts resulting from the war Our Paris correspondent says that "in every form General Dix mindful of the trials and sufferings through which our country passed during the rebellion and with a full knowledge of the causes and influence that prompted it and carried it on so long and of the elements that are now ruling the Democratic party as an avowed opponent of the party its leaders and candidates in this campaign"

The full knowledge of General Dix no one will dispute He knows, we have no doubt many things which others only fear in connection with the position assailed by the Democratic party in this campaign and in reference to Seymour and the war and such little episodes as our July riots of 1863 And when General Dix as our Minister at Paris and in the face of [illegible] adhesion to Seymour boldly declares [illegible] that Seymour's election will be a great calamity his example will certainly have a powerful influence upon the war Democrats of New York and the whole country because of his unflinching patriotism from first to last and because of his intimate knowledge of many things behind the scenes affecting Governor Seymour of which the public knows little or nothing And Reverdy Johnson, they say, and most of our other Ministers abroad are likewise for Grant

The Presidential Question From a Local Standpoint

[From the New York Herald Sept 10th

On the Presidential question there is very little excitement among the Democratic masses The subalterns and more immediate leaders of the rank and file listen with apathy to the assurances of their chiefs that Seymour and Blair will be the victors in the November contest They in fact know that they can see as far through a millstone as the leaders can, and in their calculations as to results the products all tell against their interests and against the prospect of the party succeeding to the control of the Government and the vast Federal patronage attached thereto Among that portion of the party the greatest discontent prevailed at the nomination of Seymour as the standard bearer of the Democracy The confidence with which they looked forward to the nomination of Mr Chase and the high hopes they entertained of his triumphant election and the return to the party of the [illegible] offices at [illegible] which they would have [illegible] heirs and successors [illegible] nomination of Seymour [illegible] have ever had but slight respect for the leaders and [illegible] that the chance of defeating their opponents was sacrificed to the unreconstructed passions of the Southern leaders in the National Convention and the personal ambition of an unsuccessful and incompetent party chief From this Presidential stand point the field of State politics is now being surveyed, and an idea is gaining ground among the best posted and clear seeing men of the party that the gubernatorial election is not a matter of such certainty as the Tammany leaders would have their followers believe The ring itself has lost some of the confidence with which it hailed the success of its plans in the Convention at Albany, and hence the great effort it is making through its emissaries at the present time in Maine and in other States to keep up the flagging spirit of the Democracy and to prepare them for the grand struggle in November next It is costly work, and if the chief stumpers of each of the States require the sinews of war to the amount that Vallandigham demanded and received for the Ohio campaign, the Tammany coffers will be sadly reduced by the end of the year Vallandigham and Pendleton when in this city a few weeks ago, were handed over some $[illegible] to prosecute the campaign in that State Republican majorities in a few of the States it is feared will if such should occur, seriously imperil the Tammany ticket for Governor and therefore no cost of sacrifice is to be spared to guard against such a result

The Republicans are becoming daily more hopeful of the double event in November next and while all their efforts are directed to insure the end desired they are content to leave the city offices to the Tammany ring knowing that they are hardly worth the trouble and dissensions and family broils which they engender

EXTINGUISHER PORTABLE SELF ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered
The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows
Every fire begins on a small scale and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance no means are ready at hand
The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement
It is always ready for use though standing unused for years
It puts out Fire instantly
It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose
It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman
It is portable and as easily handled as a bucket of water
It possesses within itself the power of a force pump and as effective as a Steam Engine
It is the only known invention that will put out Fires for Kerosene Tar Naphtha and combustible materials [illegible]

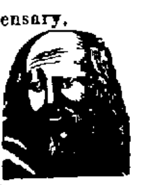
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency &c Skin Diseases of [illegible] years standing and Ulcerated legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are this day suffering from the effects of indiscretion, [illegible] absorbed into the system [illegible] that their pallid emaciated and disfigured face and their broken down constitutions disqualify them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of [illegible] thousands suffer until death [illegible] Let parents guardians friends attend to this [illegible] any of these horrible [illegible] that they are cared for [illegible] Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon [illegible] who has made private diseases his especial study [illegible] years and who is certain to cure [illegible] without mercury or any injurious drugs [illegible] who are afflicted [illegible] the welfare of their friends [illegible] pretended doctors [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days [illegible] publicly using the names of [illegible] physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequently insanity If relief be not obtained [illegible] apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these [illegible] maladies [illegible] get the sacred responsibility resting upon them [illegible] delay to obtain immediate relief
DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are [illegible] shoe makers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupation in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus false certificates printed patients letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
